

Online Banking FRAUD & SECURITY

As theft, fraud, and instances of stolen identity become increasingly prevalent threats, the security of your personal information remains a top priority at American AgCredit. We use industry-leading best practices to ensure your account information stays secure. You can better protect yourself by recognizing, preventing, and reporting fraudulent activity and by understanding and implementing the tips, policies, and procedures found in the information below.

The information presented on or through this website is made available solely for general information purposes and is subject to the Association's legal information and the Disclaimers that govern your use of and access to the information posted here.

American AgCredit's Security Measures

Providing a secure environment where customers can safely interact online with American AgCredit is our number one priority. American AgCredit continually strives to evaluate and enhance the security of our online systems to ensure their safety and effectiveness. American AgCredit encourages you to research and understand the risk that doing business on the Internet poses and take the necessary measures to ensure a safe online experience.

Types of Fraud & Security Attacks

Understanding how fraud affects your business is an important step in preventing it. Click below to learn more about the different types of fraud and security attacks.

LEARN MORE

Reduce Your Fraud Risk

Businesses, from large corporations to small “Mom and Pop” stores, are targets for a variety of illegal schemes. Learn more about tips and suggestions to help you better protect against fraud.

LEARN MORE

Report Fraud

If you notice suspicious activity or unauthorized transactions or believe your account has been accessed without permission, take action immediately.

LEARN MORE

ADDITIONAL SECURITY RESOURCES

FTC.gov

The official site of the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) features information that can help you avoid identity theft and inform you of what to do if your identity is stolen. Select the Consumer Protection tab to access the most relevant materials.

OnlineOnGuard.gov

This site from the FTC provides practical tips that help you guard against Internet fraud, secure your computer and protect your personal information.

US-CERT.gov

The United States Computer Emergency Readiness Team site provides information related to current activity or scams, as well as publications on how to secure your computer.

FDIC.gov

Tips from the FDIC about how to protect yourself from identity theft and fraud.

FRAUD PROTECTION TIP #12: ACCOUNT TAKEOVER

Despite fraud prevention protocol, cyber-account takeovers committed through malicious software installed on computers remains a constant threat to businesses resulting in millions of dollars in losses. Learn how to protect yourself and your business with the latest in our fraud protection series.

LEARN MORECALCULATE YOUR PAYMENTBranch LocationsInsurance Agent LocatorLoan InquiryCalculate Your PaymentsPrivacy & ComplianceFraud & Security

Contact Us

Careers

Accessibility

Site Map

Whistleblower Program

Board Elections

©2022 American AgCredit

